Wheat Declines Considerably Under Heavy Pressure to Sell.

BUT LITTLE DOING IN CORN.

A Strong Undertone, However, Brings Prices Up a Notch-Oats Dull and Firm-General Market Quotations.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

CHICAGO, June 23,- | Special Telegram to the BEE. |-The wheat market opened weak this morning and a tendency to improvement in prices developed. This budding sentiment of returned confidence was nipped by an early frost in the shape of a baseless rumor affecting a local bank. June wheat sold off to 68%c, July receded from 70%c to 69%c, August from 7236c to 7136c, September from 743ge to 733ge, and December from 793ge to 78%c, and subsequently to 78%c. It was generally understood that a considerable line of "bank wheat" came out, though it will be safe from now forward to discount reports of selling "bank wheat." The local market suffered less than might have been expected, declining under stress of great pressure only about %c The process of recovery from the artificial depression was slow but sure, and the 1 o'clock range was only fractionally below the top prices of the day, viz: 694c for June, 70%e for July, 72%e for August and 74%e for

The speculative market for corn was quiet almost to duliness from the opening to the close of the regular session. The business passing was of a light local scalping sort. there being no outside orders to speak of either way. Despite the general apathy, however, there was a firmer undertone, and after fluctuating within %e range, all futures closed at the top at 1 o'clock, or within a split of the top, and about 1/4c above yester-day's latest bids. July sold at 361/4@361/4c and closed at 36% @36%c, together with August quoted at 3916c and September at 3916c. Receipts at this point continue light, seventythree cars being expected in to-day, and eighty-six cars estimated for to-morrow. Oats ruled dull and firm, in sympathy with corn. Trading in futures was lighter than for several days past, and there was scarcely any fluctuation in values. The best prices of the day were obtainable at 1 o'clock, July any fluctuation in values. The best prices of the day were obtainable at 1 o'clock, July and August then being quoted at 25\(\frac{1}{2}\)c and September at 25\(\frac{1}{2}\)c.

The provision traders had a slow day. There was a little spurt of life during the morning in short ribs, occasioned by moderate outside buying for August and September, but in the general trade there was no marked or continued activity. Traiers of all classes were disinclined to branch out, and the business transacted, aside from reaching barely moderate volume, was without special feature. Pork sold for June delivery at $22.00, which was also the nominal quotation for cash. Hogs were in better supply and stronger. The cash product was quiet, with the demand confined to special description. In lard and short ribs—the speculative lines—trading was confined mainly to July, August and September, with August the leading delivery.

AFTERNOON SESSION—Wheat was stronger; June closed at 60\(\frac{1}{2}\)(\frac{1}{2

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

CHICAGO, June 23.-[Special Telegram to the BEE. !- CATTLE-The market remains in the same unsatisfactory condition. There were in all 15,000 on sale to-day. The dressed beef dealers have all their cooling rooms and refrigerators will hold, and there is a slow and weak demand for beef on both sides of the Atlantic. Shipping steers, 1,350 to 1,500 lbs, $3,75@4.45; 1,200 to 1,350 lbs, $3,50@3.70; stockers and feeders, $1,50@3.00; cows, bulls and mixed, $2,50@3.00; Texas steers, $2,70@3.40;

Hous—Trade was rather slow and prices somewhat unsettled at the opening. Yet later on the demand became more active and the market became stronger, but at no time more than 5c higher than the lowest yesterday. Almost the entire receipts were sold within a range of $4.90@5.05, a few at $5.10, and Yorkers, $4.95@5.00.

FINANCIAL

NEW YORK, June 23 .- | Special Telegram to the BEE. J-STOCKS-The bears went for the New York stock market hot and heavy, and by circulating all klads of scandalocs report , such as rumors derogatory to the condi ion of the American Exchange bank of Clinago, which, a though entirely without foundation, served the purpose of the rates be'ng advanced to 15 per cent, they succeeded in demoralizing the entire market and forced holders to liquidate freely, the m irket being broader and well filled with stocks, and trading up to the noon hour exceeded that of any day within a week. New Yorkers were not the only sellers, as many Chicago holders who have been hanging on in the expectation that the financial cloud would blow over and not effect the stock market, became scared at the uneasy feeling which pervaded financial circles and decided not to stand in the gap, and threw their holdings. At the opening the principal selling of the general list was led by John Powers' brokers, S. V. White and the New England bear party, who have watched things closely of late, and seeing a good opportunity to knock the market off without much exertion, improved it to the best of their ability. Their selling forced the price down to where many lines were held on stop orders, and the sell ing of them accelerated the downward movement. Dividend stocks were affected fully as much as the cats and dogs, and declines were recorded of 1@3% points, cotton seed oil, New England, Richmond Terminal, and Missouri Pacific being the leaders. The Grangers lost 2 points. About noon the market steadied up some, but buying was not strong enough, and it again weakened and became as heavy as during the early trading. There was no legitimate cause for an advance in the rates of money to 15 per cent. The financial wreckers, knowing that they could break the stock markets by bidding up rates for money between now and July 1, took ad vantage of it. After July 1 the indications point to an easier market, as the dispursements for interest amount to $9,526,000 and pensions $12,000,000, a total of $21,526,000. The total sales for the day were $ 189,440 shares. GOVERNMENTS-Government bonds were

The receipts were light to-day, there being a falling oft as compared with yesterday of 1100. The market opened with light hogs in very fair demand at steady prices, and they were all taken at those prices early in the day. Heavy hogs were very slow all day at a decline of fully 5c from yesterday's close. A few loads of heavy hogs were sold early when included in a string of light weights, but the majority were left until late, and nine loads were unsold. The buyers prefer the light hogs to the heavy at the same price.
